

2018 Fall Semester

Research in Progress Luncheon and Conference Schedule

HU Institute for the Promotion of Global Education (IPGE)

Q: What is the purpose of the luncheons?

A: These luncheons aim to offer attendees with the chance to discuss their research over lunch in English and in a more relaxing environment. They can do this through conversation, with a manuscript, poster, or PowerPoint presentation. IPGE faculty will give feedback and advice on presenting your research in English at international conferences.

Q: Who is welcome to attend the luncheons?

A: All students and faculty at Hiroshima University are welcome to attend. Those in the Faculty of Education who want to discuss their research in English are particularly encouraged to participate!

Q: Which luncheon should I attend?

A: All luncheons are open to everyone. Faculty Members and Staff, Graduate (Master's and Doctoral), Undergraduate, Research, and International Students.

We've organized the luncheons mainly on Tuesdays as shown below. We will have the Research in Progress Conference on February 7th (Thu), 2019 for all the faculty and students.

Q: What should I bring to the luncheon?

A: If you want feedback on your research paper, a poster or a PowerPoint presentation, please bring them in print, a printable medium or PC. Bringing questions only is also welcomed. And of course, bring your own lunch!

Call for Presenters in the Faculty-wide Research in Progress Conference

The Institute for the Promotion of Global Education (IPGE) is organizing Faculty-wide Research in Progress Conference in order to foster new, innovative, and practical research approaches among students, faculty members, staff, and alumni.

As a part of IPGE-RPC activities, we are inviting you to submit a proposal for a 10-20-minute oral presentation to be held between 10 am and 5 pm on February 7th, 2019 at the Faculty of Education. The theme of the presentation can be on the research you have done or research you are intending to present at an international conference. We encourage you to actively take part, as it will serve as a platform for practice and exchange of knowledge and ideas.

If you are interested in taking part as one of presenters, simply submit a title and a 100-word abstract with your name, the degree program you are registered in, or your affiliation, and your available time setting. Send it via e-mail to The Institute for the Promotion of Global Education (IPGE) by Tuesday, February 7th, 2019.

Target Participants: Any Faculty Members and Staff, Graduate (Master's and Doctoral), Alumni and ALL Students including International Students

Language: English

Date and Time: Thursday, February 7th, 2019, 10:00-17:00 (You can come in and go out freely. Please notify us of your most convenient time for presentation. We will let you know the detailed program later.)

Place: Room C203, C Building at Graduate School of Education
